Volume I

Dissociative Identity Disorder

Recognizing and Restoring the Severely Abused

Volume 1: Psychological Dynamics is the first part of Dr. Hawkins' comprehensive new book, which will include key issues involved in understanding and ministering to those suffering with Dissociative Identity Disorder (DID), including the complexities of mind control and spiritual bondage occurring as a result of ritual abuse.

With a PhD in Biblical Studies, over 25 years as a pastor, experience on a DID hospital unit, and extensive networking with mental health professionals, Dr. Hawkins addresses this subject from both an academic and spiritual perspective.

This volume contains an extensive, explanatory listing of the often complex and subtle symptomatology of DID, an examination of mind-control programming with a suggested protocol for its resolution, a discussion on the reliability and healing of traumatic memory, and an introduction to Dr. Hawkins' concept of "Primary Identity" dynamics, which can transform the efficiency of the healing process.

Multiple Identities: Understanding and Supporting the Severely Abused

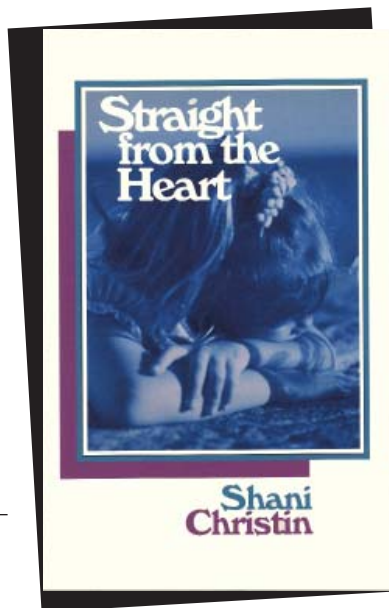

Expanded & Revised

Previously published as Supporting Ritual Abuse Survivors, this updated and expanded book is designed to bring understanding and support to survivors of severe childhood abuse, especially those who suffer from Dissociative Identity Disorder (DID) as a result of sexual or ritual abuse.

Covering a wide range of topics, including trust, dissociation, memory, conflict, emotions, self-harm, and spiritual warfare, the book concludes with three appendices providing a glossary of terms, a list of types of alter-identities, and a Satanic calendar.

My Flower has Thorns

The Spouse of a DID Survivor Speaks Out

James Vineyard describes some of the challenges faced by spouses of abuse survivors.

Cosmic Hierarchy

-- Updated Oct 2010 --

For the most part, Christianity has lost the biblical worldview that our spiritual enemies consist not only of demons but also of higher-level fallen angels, such as "principalities" and "powers." Most Christians have come to assume that demons and fallen angels are the same. Increasing evidence is challenging that viewpoint, however. As Dr. Hawkins ministered to individuals held in bondage by the kingdom of darkness, he was personally awakened to the need to distinguish higher-level angelic entities (which he calls "cosmic beings") from demons. This motivated him to make an intense re-examination of the biblical data on this subject, which he shares in this teaching series (an updated version of the original 2007 CD set).

Shame: Identity Thief

by Dr Henry Malone

PSI $13.00

Shame: Identity Thief is a well-written, easy-to-read, practical book. It is probably fair to say that no descendant of Adam has been able to avoid at least partially basing his identity on shame. We live in a shame-based culture. Dr. Malone has provided encouragement and help to recognize and face the issue head on. This book will help you reduce the load of shame you carry that negatively affects your life.

Journey of Love

by Penny Elder

PJL $20.00

This book is delightfully illustrated by Gerri Lynn Wilson.

The Complete Guide to Living with Men

by E. James Wilder

PGM - $20.00

From back cover: "The easiest way to find out if a man is immature is by attempting a relationship with him. Discover what men become when they mature instead of settling for men in their usual immature state. A major failure to reach adult maturity sets men up for addictions. Learn how men grow up and how to correct problems when they don't. You have definitely not heard this before!"

He Knows My Name

by Vicki Freligh & Gerri Lynn Wilson.
