Breaking an Ancestral Bargain/Barter

(Updated 09-06-20)

Most Bible scholars agree that the Whore of Babylon, described in Revelation 17, represents the false religious system of the world, which I have come to call “Satan’s Counterfeit Religious System.” She is described as sitting on a beast. In Revelation 18 her destruction is described along with the great mourning of all of her followers who had conducted “business” with her. Using the metaphor of commerce, the commodities bartered or sold within this system are listed, including in verse 18:13 “the bodies and souls of men.” Many take this to mean slavery, but if the system itself is a spiritual system, then I believe the items of commerce that are listed must be interpreted in a spiritual, rather than physical, context as well.

I believe that when a person has a generational heritage of significant involvement in Satan’s Counterfeit Religious System, we need to be alert to the possibility of the bartering of souls (and perhaps bodies) of future generations having occurred. I believe that this would entail giving Lucifer, or Satan, the right to take part of the persons of one’s future generations in exchange for receiving power or some other concession from him.

When Satan gains the right to the soul of persons in future generations, he seems to be able to claim either a dissociated identity or part of the person’s life force.¹ A type of spiritual gambling may take place to determine to which part of Lucifer’s kingdom any bargained identity will be allocated. This is usually to either his counterfeit realm of light above the earth or to his counterfeit realm of darkness beneath the earth.²

A bonded triad seems to form between the bartered part of the person, the ancestral spirit who made the bargain, and a cosmic being (perhaps the one to whom the barter is made). This triad and the generational bargain can be broken through the shed blood of the Lord Jesus Christ and the declared free will of the person involved (Rev. 12:11).³

The following prayer is written for this purpose. It is given in two forms below. The first is conducive to a person reading through on his own behalf. The second is for using when a facilitator is leading someone else through it.
